New Database: Going Global

July 5, 2012

We are pleased to announce that Going Global is now available via GALILEO. Funded by Henderson Library, this full-text, online database contains country-specific resource guides for international job seekers. Guides are created by local career specialists and are updated annually. Topics covered by the guides include:

Job search resources: general and specialized job sites, job fairs, newspapers, government-sponsored employment offices, headhunters/recruiters, internship programs and temporary staffing agencies

Employment outlook and key industry trends

Industry-specific trade and professional organization information and links: issues of special concern for foreign professionals, education requirements, trade associations, and industry web sites

Top company profiles

Business resources: trade councils, chambers of commerce, professional and social networking organizations, online telephone directories and business publications

Work permit and visa regulations

Finance and compensation information: taxes, cost of living, medical insurance, vacation/leave, etc.

Resume/CV writing guidelines and examples

Interview advice

Cultural advice
